

Course Announcement: Advanced GCP Workshop

Who? What?
When? Where?
Why? How?

Date: 2nd—3rd Feb 2015
Time: 08:30 AM—4.00PM
Silver Springs Hotel,
Nairobi, Kenya.

The advanced GCP course is an intensive 2-day workshop that delves into the hands-on details targeting clinical research staff. The course requires active participation during group and individual exercises. Pre- and post-tests and a training certificate before and at the end of course. Advanced GCP Certificate valid for 3 years!

What will I learn?

- Clinical Trial Life Cycle
- Investigator Selection and Site Preparation
- Clinical Research Ethics
- Describe the elements of a functional Quality System
- Good Manufacturing Practice and Cold Chain
- Informed Consent Challenges
- Good Documentation Practices
- Monitoring, Audits and Inspections
- Managing and Assuring GCP Compliant Data
- Improving Source Documentation

Slots for this course are strictly limited and therefore early registration is encouraged. If you are interested in attending this course, please send an email to: justpdds@mail.com

Who should attend?

- Principal Investigators, Co-Investigators, Research Scientists, Clinical Research Staff working in the pharmacy, clinic, participant recruitment, quality assurance, data management etc.

Pre-requisites:

- GCP certified and clinical research experience

35,000/= per person
incl. tea & lunch